I'm spending a night on the streets to show my support for destitute asylum seekers. Please give what you can!

There are an estimated 100,000 destitute asylum seekers living in the UK. When their claim is rejected by the Home Office, instead of being deported immediately, the majority are left destitute, without financial support or housing. Unable to provide for themselves, they are reliant on organisations like the Boaz Trust for their basic essentials. If you want more information, ring 0161 202 1056 or email lucysmith@boaztrust.org.uk.
