Wednesday 22nd June 2011; 7pm- 9pm

FAITH says...About REFUGE

Venue: St John's Church, Corner of Waterloo Road and Bellott Street,
Cheetham Hill, Manchester, M8 0AZ

Refugees, Asylum Seekers & Migrant Workers; what are the differences?

What do the Holy Books say about Refuge and Asylum?

How could people of faith better support Refugee and Asylum Seekers?

Speakers:

Personal Stories from Asylum Seekers

Dave Smith (Founder & Director of Boaz Trust)

Zahid Hussain (Regenesis, Shakespeare House)

For catering purposes please email mail@fn4m.org to confirm attendance

These dialogues are a starting point for people to discuss with others of different faiths, and none, their thoughts; any future actions they wish to make; and any other perspectives they wish to share.

There is a ground rule of respect for others opinions, even when in disagreement. The main purpose of the dialogue sessions is to learn from each other and work towards further joint ventures.

Please attend if you are able and pass this information on to your colleagues and friends.
